Benefits

Basing our products on Microsoft Dynamics NAV and AX ensures our customers can really get the most out of their Miracle solutions. By fully integrating the Payroll and HR solutions with the organisations central business management system, the benefits will quickly be recognised.

HR and Payroll functions should not be isolated from other processes within a business, given that payroll and the management of staff can be the largest expense for most organisations. With an integrated solution, companies can quickly become accountable providing planning and analysis for the rest of the business, helping with financial reporting.

As companies often need to adapt quickly to changing environments, it's vital to have a system in place to support them. The Microsoft Dynamics NAV and AX environments allow for flexible and agile last minute changes to payroll and HR tasks, which an outsourced payroll simply couldn't handle without incurring additional costs.

Due to the sensitive nature of payroll and HR data, it's essential that companies do not leave themselves open to errors. Without an integrated solution, data will need to be pushed from one system to another, whether it's accounting software, exporting to a spreadsheet to give to an outsourcing company or a timesheet management solution. All this movement, makes errors difficult to catch and they are often passed onto another system and back again.

With an integrated solution, companies will not have to change data in multiple systems and can quickly realise one version of the truth. Costs can be reduced, as interfaces can sometimes be expensive to develop and maintain. IT resources can be shared across the business, reducing steep learning curves and training costs across the board.

In addition to this, having an integrated Payroll and HR solution, will provide your business with the visibility they need to share resources across the company whilst maintaining a secure and protected system.
